Details

The name Fancy Pantry evokes memories of an elegant era combined with sartorial cheekiness and that's what we wanted to come across with our selection of gift products for our 40th Birthday Hamper Gift, when they were combined with the selected customised elements. We simply wanted to design the best 40th Gift Hamper in the World. When we looked for a suitable chassis for our 40th Birthday Hamper gift, we saw that the Fancy Pantry fitted perfectly. Socially and demographically, there is very little difference being someone hotting fifty and a new quadragenarian, so the selection of traditional tastes married with some new product innovation was served perfectly by a Fancy Pantry Collection of goods. The 40th Birthday Hamper Gift differs from conventional Birthday Hampers because several elements of the gift celebrate the significance of the occasion. With its 40th Cake, You're Forty Mug and a free Gift Card celebrating the achievement of making it to the Enlightened age, this Hamper Gift stands out as being special. The remaining elements serve their function of complementing a top quality Birthday Hamper. The underlying role of these products is to base them in traditional quality, whilst focusing in on the gift theme of Tea & Coffee. We've included Gold Taste Award Winning Producers and kept simple flavours. There is nothing outrageous in terms of taste in order to stand out, just standard gold taste award winning black tea and high quality coffee bags, which will be sure to delight However just in case you think we might be a trifle dull, we slipped in a little bottle of Green Tea Sparkling.
